If you are looking for a horrific game that will have you filled with anxiety, then this is the game to get. I've only played for about an hour and I'm absolutely terrified to go upstairs in the hospital. You hear noises, and you see things... You know you're not alone... It is so suspenseful walking through the maps with just enough light to see wondering if something is going to be around the corner. I am scared to keep playing, but I really want to see what happens next. It's such an internal struggle. The sounds and visual affects within this game are amazing and from a game developer, I really like how much thought and planning went into the code to make this game come together. I recommend purchasing this game. With a price as low as this, you really can't go wrong and be upset with buying a game like this! Don't hesitate, trust me, and do it! Best of luck to you, and may you be filled with the courage I currently lack!. Decent horror game.. Lazaretto gets a big thumbs up! Check out my video for more info: <https://youtu.be/NSDzw8lh5TE>. Lazaretto is a game where you find a key and it unlocks a drawer that has another key. Then you use that key to unlock another drawer which has a bunch of keys to other drawers which may open a door eventually. Is something scary behind that door? It's hard to say because you've already died of boredom.. This game is out♥♥♥♥ingstanding.. Hey all! This is going to be my first review on a Steam Horror game. First off let me introduce myself. My name is Richard aka (its xFlashx) and I would love to give out an awesome review about this game! I'll give it a 10/10 for it being an indie horror game. The Sound effects are scary and the puzzles actually take time to figure out instead of easily being solved! Don't be afraid to browse Youtube if you ever get stuck on a part in this game. It gets better and better. The beginning part of this game does take some time to figure out, I'll give you a clue to 2 parts I've noticed people getting stuck on A Helping Spoiler "1. put the broken mask pieces in the box, 2. where you see lots of doors with a death bed, pull out the bed and jump on top key on a ceiling pipe". Don't give up if you don't figure out the puzzle because the game gets REAL good later on ;). Its most definitely worth the price of what the developers are asking for. Turn up that volume and be in for amazing scares to get you jumping off your seat :D Enjoy! \m/ - twitter @itsxflashx. O jogo por si só é um horror.

Just completed this game on my channel (playlist below). I had a good time! It was adequately spooky with some good looking enemies along the way. The audio was my favorite aspect of this game as it made moments tense even when nothing was there. It left lots of questions unanswered, but I assume Chapter Two will clear things up.

So far a good start to the series.

LAZARETTO: Chapter One Playlist - https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLQExZ2b_9Kr7LohA5lhgTa-AMPlbC45cE. Game is such an original. The controls are tight and very responsive and the Devs are amazingly involved with the community. Had an absolute Blast Running through this game and I hope others will give it a go.

PROS:

- Very Responsive Controls
- Very Atmospheric
- Creepy as All Hell
- Good Character Designs
- Interesting Nightmarish and Serial Locations

CONS:

- BGM tends to fade early at points. Game has a lovely audio track but also amazing haunting sounds, so this may actually be an intentional mechanic. Either way it works well, I would really like to listen to some more of the music. Maybe an OST is in order? I'd buy it.
- The Spiders are so real (That should be a plus though right, not a con. lol)
- Chapter 2 isn't out yet (that's more of a joke than an actual fault)

Final Thoughts: Absolute Blast of a game, had a super time doing a Lets Play on it and interacting with the community and Devs. Seriously can not wait for the next installment.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pC-vSW9-PKg&t=25s>. I have to say this is probably the best horror game I have ever played (Except for Amnesia). I'm really looking forward to more from Blind Monkey. Keep'em coming!.

No.

This game uses the same asset hospital as "Horror Hospital", a Turkish game that I got laughed at for saying "ahhh, it's alright for the price" (in Turkish, no less). This is basically a walking simulator, with lots of sounds going on around you that have no effect on your game play whatsoever. It took me 50 minutes or so to find something that might kill me, and I found the whole experience rather underwhelming.

walking for a long time is not gameplay, when will indie devs realise this? Hiding keys around the long walk in order to impede your journey doesn't make more fun. In fact, that's what this game lacks more than anything else...fun.

Sorry Devs...waste of money, unless you like walking in the dark a lot.
